Andreas Jud, born in 1978, completed his commercial apprenticeship. He gained professional experience in initial management positions within the sports industry's service sector, continuously pursuing further education alongside his work, increasingly focusing on finance. He earned a higher diploma in business administration, a specialist qualification in finance and accounting, and subsequently a federal diploma as an expert in accounting and controlling. He also completed advanced training as a Liechtenstein fiduciary expert at the University of Liechtenstein.

In 2014, Andreas joined Allgemeines Treuunternehmen (ATU) and has headed the accounting department since 2020. Since 2024 he is a member of ATU's Board of Trustees and Management.

He speaks German and English.
