Dr. Bünyamin Taskapan, LL.M. studied at the University of Innsbruck and obtained his Diploma in Law (Mag. iur.), the J.D. equivalent, in 2006, his Diploma in Business Law (Mag. iur. rer. oec.), a combined program of the Business School and the Law School in 2009 and his Ph.D. (Dr. iur.) in 2011. Additionally, he obtained a master's degree (LL.M.) from the Vanderbilt Law School in the US whereby he focused on Corporate Law and Trust Law.

He is admitted to the Liechtenstein bar and has also passed the Austrian Bar Exam and is therefore qualified to practice law in Austria as well. Dr. Taskapan is also a Notary Public in the Principality of Liechtenstein since 2021. Additionally, he is also a member of the board of the Liechtenstein Bar Association.

Dr. Taskapan has previously worked as a stagiaire in the European Parliament in Brussels, Belgium, as a judicial clerk at the Princely Court of Vaduz, Liechtenstein, as a research assistant at the Vanderbilt Law School in the US, and as an associate for one of the top tier corporate law firms in Liechtenstein.

He joined Allgemeines Treuunternehmen (ATU) as a private client advisor for high net worth individuals (HNWIs) and ultra high net worth individuals (UHNWIs) in 2013 and is a member of ATU's Board of Trustees since 2023.

Dr. Taskapan uses his legal and economical know-how, as well as his professional experience to the benefit of his clients.

He speaks German, English and Turkish.
