Daniel Lämmli completed his apprenticeship as a commercial clerk at the Cantonal Bank of Zurich in Rüti, where he worked for a few years in the local branch of Wetzikon in several departments. He moved to the Cantonal Bank of St. Gallen in 2000, where he was hired as a Credit Officer and Director of two local branches. In the meantime, he completed his Bachelor of Science at the Fachhochschule Ostschweiz in St. Gallen.

He joined ATU in 2005, where he started as a Compliance Officer. In 2006, he completed a Diploma in Compliance Management, and in 2014, he passed the exams as a Certified Liechtenstein Fiduciary Expert at the University of Liechtenstein and the Professional Trustee Examination, allowing him to become a licensed Liechtenstein trustee.

Daniel Lämmli acts as a trustee for trusts and occupies board functions for foundations and other legal entities. He is a member of ATU's Board of Trustees and is the Chairman of the Board of Livalor Vermögensverwaltung AG.

He speaks German, English and French.
