Peter Prast studied law in Innsbruck and Vienna. He completed his law degree in 1991 (Mag. iur.). He obtained his doctorate at the University of St. Gallen in 1997 (Dr. iur. HSG) and his Master of Business Administration from the renowned University of Chicago in 2002 (MBA).

After studying law, he gained professional experience in a Liechtenstein trust company, at the Liechtenstein District Court and in a law firm. He was responsible for founding a bank subsidiary in the fiduciary sector, which he continued to manage for around 20 years.

Peter Prast is a board member of the Liechtenstein Chamber of Trustees since more than ten years. He was a member of the University Council of the Private University in the Principality of Liechtenstein (UFL) and has been Chairman of the Professional Ethics Committee, a part-time judge at the Liechtenstein Court of Appeal and Supreme Court. Peter Prast has published numerous articles on international corporate and foundation law.

He joined Allgemeines Treuunternehmen (ATU) in 2014 and is a member of ATU's Board of Trustees and Management since 2018.

He speaks German, English and French.
